GENERAL INDEX TO SESSION 1, 1886.

EXPLANATION OF THE ABBREVIATIONS.

It being a principal object of this Index, that the proceedings on each Motion shall be completely recorded, some abbreviations of forms were necessary. Those who are accustomed to the proceedings of Parliament will readily fill up the voids. Those who are not so familiar, may find the following explanation useful, but will find the whole formulæ set out at length in the "Contents."

The names which immediately follow the title of a Bill are those of the Peers or hon. Members who have charge of the Bill.

The numbers which are added at stages of Bills are the official numbers of the prints and reprints ordered at each stage, and, with the Statute, will enable the reader to follow all the changes the Bill has undergone.

The entries—Moved, "That the Bill be now read 2ᵃ;" Amendt. "this day six months;" Question put, "That 'now,' &c."—indicate the usual form of raising the issue—namely, "That the word 'now' stand part of the Question."

"The Ballot, Amendt. on Committee of Supply" indicates that the Question was raised by means of an Amendment moved on the Motion (after the Order of the Day for the House to go into Committee of Supply had been read), "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair." In this case the issue is formally raised by the Motion "To leave out from the word 'That' to the end of the Question, in order to add" other words. the decision is taken on the Question, "That the words proposed to be left out stand part of the Question."

The Nos. added to the "Parliamentary Papers" are in most cases those given in the Commons' "List of Papers for Sale."

Local Self-Government—Rating of Lunatic Asylums, &c.
Questions, Mr. Kimber; Answers, The President of the Local Government Board (Mr. Stansfeld) May 28, [306] 312

Local Taxation (Incidence)
Moved, "That the present system under which, in England and Wales, the first Incidence of Local Taxation (with some slight exceptions) falls on the occupier and not on the owner of lands and tenements is unjust; that such owners ought, in equity to bear at least a moiety of those charges; that the system under which country mansions are rated is unfair; and that the owners of ground rents in towns are liable to no part of those charges, the outlay of which is essential in order that the property may possess any marketable value whatever" (Mr. Thorold Rogers) Mar 23, [303] 1643
Amendt. To leave out from "That," add "while the apportionment of the payment of Rates between landlord and tenant may be desirable, as part of a complete scheme for remedying the admitted inequalities of the Incidence of Local Taxation, this House is of opinion that the financial injustice complained of can only be removed by a comprehensive measure, and that an equitable re-adjustment of Taxation, as between real and personal property, is urgently required" (Sir Richard Paget) v.; Question proposed, "That the words, &c.;" after long debate,

Parliamentary Oath (Mr. Bradlaugh)—Mr. Speaker reads letters from Sir M. Hicks-Beach, Mr. Cecil Raikes, and Sir John Kennaway, protesting against the admission of Mr. Charles Bradlaugh, returned for the borough of Northampton, to take the Oath, [302] 21, 24

SITTINGS AND ADJOURNMENT OF THE HOUSE

The Derby Day—Mr. Speaker explains the present practice of the House in respect of moving the Adjournment of the House over the Derby Day, [306] 34

Attendance and Places of Members

Mr. Speaker explains the Rule of the House in reference to the attendance and securing of places. A Member must be present in his seat at Prayer time; and though the practice has been repeatedly sanctioned that a Member may place his hat in his seat before Prayer time, it is an essential condition that he should occupy that seat at Prayer time before he can retain it for the rest of the evening [and other incidents], [302] 427; [304] 978, 979, 1315

NEW RULES OF PROCEDURE

Adjournment of the House—Rule 2—

Matter, Government of Ireland Bill, [306] 318
Matter, The Ministerial Statement, [306] 1307
Matter, Appointment of Commissioners under the Crofters (Scotland) Act, [306] 1499

MOTIONS AND QUESTIONS—ORDERS OF THE DAY

Precedence of Government Orders

Mr. Raikes—Do I understand you to rule, Sir, that it is competent to the Government to give precedence to any Bill they prefer over Bills of other private Members?—Mr. Speaker—Yes; on the days on which the Government have the disposal of the Business, that is so, [303] 1374

Orders of the Day—Parliamentary Franchise Bill—Mr. Everett said that as he did not see the hon. Gentleman who had charge of the Bill (Mr. Moulton), or any of the Members whose names appeared on the back of the Bill, in their places, he begged to move the second reading.—Sir Joseph Pease asked if it was competent for the hon. Gentleman to move the second reading of the Bill?—Mr. Speaker said that the hon. Gentleman was perfectly in Order. The Bill was the property of the House, and any hon. Gentleman was at liberty to move it, [305] 353

MOTIONS AND QUESTIONS

Bills dealing with the same subject—Police Forces (Removal of Disabilities) Bill—Mr. Tottenham moved for leave to bring in a Bill on this subject, confined to Great Britain, and Mr. King-Harman had given Notice of a similar Bill relating to Ireland—another Bill of the same nature relating to the two countries had already been brought in and rejected—objected that this Motion was against the Rule of the House.—Mr. Speaker: There is no objection to the Motion of the hon. Member on the ground of Order. The Bill to which the hon. Member refers (Police Forces Enfranchisement Bill) was not rejected on the Motion that it be referred to any Committee; the Bill was postponed to a very distant day. It is a matter for the discretion of the House whether there should be more than one Bill before the House dealing with the same subject, [305] 1631

Orders of the Day

Alteration of date—Sale of Intoxicating Liquors on Sunday Bill—Sir Joseph Pease, being asked on what day he would take the Committee on this Bill again, answered on Friday, the 7th May. By error this was put down in the Votes Friday, the 7th June. There was no Friday, June 7; but the Clerks, in revising the Order Book, placed it under Friday, June 4. Sir Joseph Pease asked Mr. Speaker whether he could not, by an exercise of his authority, alter the date as previously mentioned?—Mr. Speaker said it would not be within his duty to alter the date, [305] 379

Unopposed Returns—Mr. Speaker: I understand this Return has received the consent of the Government, and is unopposed. It is, therefore, quite competent for one hon. Member to move for it, as an unopposed Return, on behalf of another hon. Member, [304] 261

AMENDMENTS TO QUESTIONS

Mr. Raikes: I apprehend, Sir, that if the House, in order to avoid having two more divisions, consents to allow the words of the hon. Member for Northumberland (Mr. A. Grey) to be added to the Main Question without a division, it will then be possible to take a division on the Main Question as amended.—Mr. Speaker: The right hon. Gentleman has correctly interpreted the situation. The House should allow the words proposed to be added to be inserted, and then vote upon the whole as a substantive Motion, [303] 364

RULES OF DEBATE

Order in Debate

Relevancy

I must call the hon. Member (Sir Henry Tyler) to Order. He must confine his observations to the point of Order which he was raising, and must not make any comments, [306] 507

We are not discussing the second Instruction at all, but the first. The question of interpretation is one for the House, [302] 1704, 1733, 1734

I must point out to the hon. Member (Mr. Dillon) that he would not be in Order in discussing the Irish Question on the Motion for postponing for this day of the Notices of Motion, [302] 433, 435

Mr. Speaker: The hon. Gentleman (Mr. Clancy) is not confining his remarks to the subject before the House.—Mr. Clancy: I was trying to show, Mr. Speaker—— Mr. Speaker: The hon. Gentleman is entirely out of Order in the course he is taking.—Mr. Clancy: Of course, I bow to your ruling, Sir; but I was expressing surprise—— Mr. Speaker: I have told the hon. Gentleman that he is out of Order. I expect he will obey my ruling, [303] 1723

Mr. Speaker: I must point out to the hon. Member (Mr. Joseph Nolan) that . . . . . he is not now discussing the second reading of the Bill, which is the Question before the House, but is indulging in personal recriminations, which have nothing whatever to do with the Bill now before the House, [302] 1836

Reference to a Past Debate—It would not be in Order for the right hon. Gentleman to refer to a past debate in this Session which was not upon the present Bill, [306] 92

Reference to another Bill, [306] 346

Reading a Speech—It is an undoubted Rule of this House, and has repeatedly been acted upon, that a Member is not entitled to read his speech, though he may refer to his notes, [303] 1108

Reading Extracts from Newspapers—The hon. Gentleman (Mr. Heaton) is only reading extracts from a newspaper. The reading of such extracts is not asking a Question of a Minister, [302] 422

Reference to a Bill—Inasmuch as the Motion proposes to postpone the Notices of Motion and Orders of the Day on Tuesdays and Fridays, and as there is reason to suppose that the Arms (Ireland) Bill will be among the Orders of the Day on those days, the hon. Member is in Order in referring to that Bill, [305] 1290, 1291, 1292

Speaking a Second Time—Mr. J. G. Talbot rose— Mr. Speaker: I must remind the hon. Gentleman that he has already spoken.—Mr. J. G. Talbot: I was about to second the Motion for the Adjournment of the Debate.—Mr. Speaker: It is not competent for the hon. Gentleman to second that Motion, [305] 478, 521

The hon. Member (Mr. T. H. Bolton) is not in Order in speaking again, inasmuch as he seconded the Amendment, [302] 1510

It is a well-understood Rule that if an hon. Member seconds a Motion by simply raising his hat he is not precluded from subsequently taking a part in the debate, [304] 130

Mr. Speaker: The right hon. Gentleman (Sir Robert Peel) is not entitled to make a second speech. Only the Minister in charge of the Bill has a right of speaking again.—Sir Robert Peel: Three times.—Mr. Speaker: The Minister in charge of a Bill certainly has the right of making an explanation in regard to his Bill when it is necessary, [302] 2012

The Previous Question—Mr. Speaker: I do not think the debate can be strictly confined, on the Previous Question being moved, to the facts relating to whether the Question shall, or shall not, be put, [302] 169

It is irregular to discuss the Main Question upon a Motion for the Adjournment of the Debate, [302] 701, 1001, 1002, 1099, 1102, 1103

The Arms (Ireland) Bill—The hon. Member (Mr. Lewis) is going into the merits of the case, and defending the merits of the Arms Bill. That should be reserved for the debate on the Bill, [305] 1290, 1291, 1292, 1293, 1294

Motions and Questions—It will not be in Order to go into the details of a measure not now before the House; but a casual reference to it would be in Order, [305] 1016

Adjournment of a Debate—Mr. Gladstone: I should like to ask you, Sir, if a Motion is made for the adjournment of the debate, and if no other Motion be made, what would be the effect on the debate relating to the Answer to the Speech from the Throne?—Mr. Speaker said, it would be necessary to name a day to which the debate would be adjourned, and that course could be taken day by day, [302] 430, 431

On Motion "That the Contagious Diseases Acts Repeal (No. 2) Bill be now read a second time," Mr. Cavendish Bentinck complained of the course pursued by the Government. — Mr. Speaker said: I must inform the right hon. Gentleman that if he speaks now at any length he exhausts his right to speak on the Main Question: — The course taken is perfectly plain. The Motion was made that the Bill be read a second time. The right hon. Gentleman, by speaking now, has exhausted his right to speak, unless he continues his speech on the Motion that the Bill be now read a second time, [303] 1908, 1909

Right of Reply—Mr. Crompton moved "That the Marriages (Attendance of Registrars) Bill be now read a second time."—Colonel Nolan said that, under the circumstances, the hon. Gentleman would do well to withdraw the Bill.—Mr. Speaker: Does the hon. Gentleman withdraw the Bill. . . . . The hon. Gentleman has no right of reply. Does he propose to withdraw the Bill?—Mr. Crompton: Yes, Sir. Order discharged; Bill withdrawn, [304] 210

Premature Motions

Colonel Makins asked if the hon. Member (Mr. Jacks), who had named a future day for the second reading of the Bill (Marriage with a Deceased Wife's Sister Bill), was in Order now in proceeding with his Motion?—Mr. Speaker: The hon. Member having named a future day for the second reading of the Bill cannot move that it now be read a second time, [303] 1769

Questions

The Chief Secretary: I shall ask the hon. Member to repeat the Question in two or three days.—Mr. Maurice Healy: I shall repeat it in the original form.—Mr. Speaker: I must remind the hon. Member that the Question to which he refers, in its original form as put at the Table, was out of Order, and I disallowed it, [302] 1543

Argumentative Questions

Mr. Speaker explains the Rules and practice of the House in regard to argumentative Questions, [302] 1190

The hon. Member (Mr. W. O'Brien) is now, in the form of a Question, making a counter-statement of considerable length, and it is impossible that a Minister can answer a Question so asked, [305] 1036

Irregularity of Questions

Mr. Hooper: I wish to ask a Question which is expunged from the Question which appeared on the Paper, which I humbly consider I am entitled to put. I wish to ask —— Mr. Speaker: Order! Order! The hon. Member is not entitled to put that Question, [305] 756

Questions to Private Members

I am very sorry to be obliged to point out to the right hon. Baronet (Sir R. Peel) that under the Rules of the House he is not entitled to put a Question to an hon. Member who is not in an official position, [303] 1213

Amendments on Motions

Sir Joseph Pease: I wish to know, Sir, whether it is in Order to amend the Motion now before the House?—Mr. Speaker: The hon. Baronet can only move an addition.—Mr. O'Kelly: I want to know whether the words proposed to be added by the hon. Baronet are not really part of the Question which has already been decided by the House?—Mr. Speaker: These words have been already negatived. . . . . I have again expressly to say that words cannot be added to the original proposition which has been by Parliamentary construction directly negatived, [303] 1707, 1708, 1709

Notices of Questions

Mr. De Cobain, who had a Notice of a Question to be put to the Chief Secretary, intimated his intention of not putting it.—Mr. Speaker thereon called on Mr. W. H. Smith, whose name stood next.—Mr. T. M. Healy rose to Order. He had received a communication on the subject of the Question of the hon. Member (Mr. De Cobain). I am informed that it contains serious charges against individuals that are altogether unfounded.—Mr. Speaker: The Question to which the hon. Member refers has been passed over, and is not now before the House, [304] 437, 438

Afterwards, when the Notices had been gone through, Mr. Healy was allowed to put the same Question.—Mr. Speaker said: It is a Rule of this House that it is not competent for one hon. Member to put a Question which appears in the name of another hon. Member, and which that hon. Member wishes to withdraw. But I think there is great force in the protest which the hon. Member (Mr. Healy) has made; and that Questions which reflect upon the character of individuals ought not to be allowed to remain on the Paper a moment longer than is necessary. Therefore, if the Chief Secretary for Ireland chooses to reply to the Question, I shall make no objection to its being put, 439

Mr. Speaker: As I read the Amendment upon the Paper, it refers to Notices of Questions intended to be answered at Question time on a future day; and according to the strict interpretation of the Resolution, no oral Question could be put without Notice at Question time unless with the consent of the Speaker, [303] 710

Mr. W. Redmond: I wish to ask if the hon. Gentleman (Mr. Macfarlane) is in Order, after the Resolution which was passed the other night, in putting a Question of which he has not given Notice?—Mr. Speaker: The hon. Gentleman is perfectly in Order in putting a Question in reference to the Business of the House, [303] 1643

Mr. W. Redmond having risen to put a Question——Mr. Speaker, interposing, said: I must point out that the Question of the hon. Member comes within the new Rule requiring that Notice of Questions should be given beforehand to the Clerk at the Table.—Mr. Redmond persevering, Mr. Speaker again refused to allow the Question to be put: And in answer to Mr. Sexton said: Supplementary Questions purely seeking for the elucidation of former answers are in Order; but supplementary Questions which it cannot be in the power of a Minister to answer at the moment I regard as belonging to those of which Notice should be given, [303] 1503, 1504

Mr. Speaker: There is no Question immediately before the House. The noble Marquess (the Marquess of Hartington) is entitled to ask a Question as to the course of important Business; but not to go into any argument, [305] 1664

Irregularity of a Question — This is not a Question which arises fairly out of the Question on the Paper, nor do I think it ought to be answered, [305] 900, 1043

Answers to Questions—The right hon. Gentleman (Sir William Harcourt) has been asked a Question, and by the Rules of the House he is entitled to answer it, [306] 1612

Mr. W. O'Brien: It is false; recall that statement.—Mr. Harrington: You know well that it is false.—Mr. Speaker: I must ask the hon. Member for South Tyrone not to interrupt the hon. and gallant Gentleman (Major Saunderson). If the hon. Member, or any other hon. Member, continues this interruption it will be my duty to take serious notice of it.—Mr. O'Brien: As a matter of Order, Sir, I will ask whether the hon. and gallant Gentleman is justified in stating here what he knows to be a falsehood?—Mr. Speaker: The expression which the hon. Gentleman has just used is quite un-Parliamentary, and must be withdrawn. . . . . On the other hand, I must say that the imputations contained in the remarks of the hon. and gallant Member are very irritating. I must call on the hon. and gallant Member now in possession of the House, and also upon the hon. Member for South Tyrone, to withdraw the expressions they have used, [305] 1769, 1770

Offensive Words against Members

The hon. Gentleman is out of Order in applying the word "dishonest" to an hon. Member. The hon. Member must withdraw the expression "dishonest."—Mr. T. P. O'Connor: Certainly, Sir; but I think you did not hear what I said. What I did say was not applied to any hon. Member, but applied to the political tactics pursued.—Mr. Speaker: Dishonest tactics were attributed to an hon. Gentleman of this House, and that is an imputation of an improper motive. It is not a proper thing to accuse any Member of dishonest tactics, and I must call upon the hon. Member to withdraw the expression, [306] 350

Mr. Thorold Rogers: Of course you do not want to know, because you are bound to continue robbing them now, just as you robbed them before.—Mr. Speaker: The expression used by the hon. Gentleman is not a proper one, [305] 450

Un-Parliamentary Language

Mr. Speaker: Order! Order! I allowed the noble Lord (Lord Randolph Churchill) a certain latitude, because the noble Lord was meeting a charge made against him. The matter is for the judgment of the House; but I put it to the House whether there should be a continuance of these personal recriminations? [305] 1554

I do not think that the words "wilful waste of the time of the House" are a proper expression to use, [305] 522

Mr. Lewis: Well, I did not profess to make an exact quotation from the hon. Member's speech. I did not hope to do so, and have left off quoting from speeches of hon. Members below the Gangway, because I find they are always able to deny them.—Mr. Dillon: I beg to ask you, Mr. Speaker, whether that observation is in Order? I repeated accurately what I had said.—Mr. Speaker: The hon. Gentleman the Member for Londonderry, I am sure, will accept the disclaimer of the hon. Gentleman, [306] 789

Mr. T. P. O'Connor: I rejoice at the occasion which makes us adjourn. The Dictatorship of intrigue and incapacity is over —— Mr. Speaker: Order! Order!—Mr. T. M. Healy: On the Motion for the Adjournment of the House my hon. Friend is quite in Order——Mr. Speaker: Order! Hon. Members must obey the Chair when I call them to Order. The hon. Member was not using Parliamentary language, and that is why I called him to Order, [306] 1245

When he (Mr. Ritchie) regarded the extravagance of his language, and the effect which usually followed such extravagant language, he began to wonder whether the hon. Gentleman was himself a hired Tory agitator.—Mr. Speaker: The hon. Gentleman is now employing language which is hardly in accordance with the proper Order of Parliamentary debate, [302] 1409

Mr. W. Redmond: The hon. and gallant Member for North Armagh (Major Saunderson) said in his jocose and rather idiotic style ——Mr. Speaker: The hon. Member is not justified in applying such an expression to another hon. Member, and I therefore call upon him at once to withdraw it. . . . . The hon. Member must withdraw it unreservedly, [304] 374

Mr. Speaker: The language which the hon. Member (Mr. C. Lewis) has used is not Parliamentary. He has said that murder and assassination were done under the immediate superintendence, sanction, and direction of the hon. Member for Cork. That is not according to the Rules of the House, and I call upon the hon. Member to withdraw, [305] 1552

The words "dishonest and hypocritical" are not in Order as applied to an hon. Member, [305] 1583

Imputations on Members.—Mr. Healy: I wish to ask whether a Member is entitled to make a charge against another Member of taking a hired mob to a particular constituency during an Election, which would be an offence under the corrupt Practices Act, and would render that Member legally incapacitated from sitting in this House? — Mr. Speaker: There is nothing in the form of the words used to bring the hon. and gallant Member (Major Saunderson) under any remark from the Chair; but it is certainly a very grave charge to make against an hon. Member, especially in a case where, as I understand, there is a Petition pending, [302] 166

The hon. Member (Mr. W. Johnston) is not in Order in continuing to make reflections upon Members of this House, though in the form of quotations from a pamphlet, [304] 1230

Mr. Healy: This is the Party to which the hon., gallant, and truthful Member for North Armagh belonged.—Mr. Speaker: The hon. Member is now reflecting on a Member of this House in a manner which is un-Parliamentary, [302] 173

Imputation of Motives

Mr. Tomlinson: Is it right, Mr. Speaker, for an hon. Member to apply the term "manœuvring" to the action of another Member of the House?—Mr. Speaker: The word "manœuvring" is certainly not out of Order; but it would be out of Order to impute to an hon. Member any unfair motive, [305] 146

Mr. Radcliffe Cooke: He hoped he had proved, by the analogy of these cases, that the hon. Gentleman did not want the House to pass this Resolution; that he brought it forward with a deep meaning, and that he did not mind being thought contemptible and mean ——Mr. Speaker said, he hoped the hon. Member would not pursue that line of observation: he was not entitled to apply such language to another hon. Member of the House, [303] 43

Mr. Reynolds: The real object of his speech was to embarrass the Government, and to incite to outrage in the North of Ireland.—Mr. Speaker: The hon. Member is not entitled to impute motives of that kind to a Member of the House, [305] 1602

Mr. Chance asked if the hon. Member (Mr. Lewis) was in Order in stating that the Bill had been wilfully kept back?—Mr. Speaker: If the hon. Member meant to attribute any improper motive, he would not be in Order; but I did not quite so understand his meaning, [306] 815

Mr. T. M. Healy: Indeed, I cannot help thinking that the ratepayers of the city of Belfast are beginning to consider what advantage they have obtained for the 150,000 golden sovereigns they have expended in getting an independent verdict upon their private business from the wiseacres of this House, headed by the hon. Gentleman the Chairman of Ways and Means——Mr. Speaker: The hon. Gentleman is certainly not in Order in referring to any Member of this House, or to one in the position of the Chairman of Ways and Means, in a manner which is scarcely in accordance with Parliamentary decorum, [302] 1710

Reflections on a Member of the House of Lords—If the hon. Gentleman (Mr. Labouchere) reflects in disparaging terms on a Member of the other House of Parliament he is clearly out of Order, [302] 230

Mr. T. M. Healy: I think we are greatly indebted to you, Sir, for your ruling, and for having refused to permit yourself to be intimidated by such a suggestion from one in the position of the Chairman of Ways and Means . . . Mr. Speaker: What I intended to say, if I did not say it, was that there is no question of the Chair having been intimidated by any Member in any way, [302] 1705

Privilege—Words spoken not in this House—Mr. Dillon: The hon. Member for South Kensington is reported, when speaking at a banquet in Kent, on Saturday, to have used these words—"Mr. Labouchere and his beggarly crew was swelled by the addition of 86 Irish Members." I wish to know if it is in Order for an hon. Member to describe Members of this House as "Mr. Labouchere and his beggarly crew!"—Mr. Speaker: The language complained of by the hon. Member was not uttered in this House; and, therefore, I have no cognizance of it, and no jurisdiction, [303] 123

PUBLIC BILLS

Printing of Bills—Mr. Johnston: I object to this Bill being read a second time. It is very necessary that it should be printed before we are asked to read it a second time.—Mr. Speaker: The objection taken by the hon. Member does not necessarily preclude the Bill being proceeded with. The matter is one for the determination of the House, [305] 1143

Amendments to Second Reading—Sir Henry Roscoe: I moved that the Bill be read a second time this day six months.—Lord Charles Beresford: I misunderstood the hon. Member. In that case, I will propose that the Bill be referred to a Select Committee.—Mr. Speaker: The noble Lord is not entitled to make that Motion until the Amendment before the House has been disposed of, [303] 1056

Instructions to Committees—Crofters (Scotland) (No. 2) Bill—Mr. M'Laren proposed to move "That it be an Instruction to the said Committee that they have power to extend the provisions of the Bill to other parts of Scotland."—Mr. Speaker: On looking at the Bill, I am clearly of opinion that an Instruction of the nature proposed to be moved for by the hon. Member would be distinctly necessary to empower the Committee to do what otherwise they would not be competent to do. . . . . I do not think, however, that it would be necessary for the House to give an Instruction to empower the Committee to include adjoining Highland counties in the Bill, [304] 110, 117

Sir, I presume that the passing of this Instruction does not bind the House to the principle contained in it?—Mr. Speaker: It is only an Instruction to enable the Committee to deal with the clause of the Act of 1875, [305] 1412

Amendments to Clauses—Mr. Labouchere: The next clause upon the Paper was to have been moved by my hon. Colleague (Mr. Bradlaugh). . . . . I propose to leave out the first part of my clause, and to move——Mr. Speaker: The hon. Member will not be entitled to do that—he must move the clause in the name of the hon. Gentleman the Member for Northampton (Mr. Bradlaugh). . . . . I must interrupt the hon. Gentleman. I understand him to move the second paragraph standing in his name.—Mr. Labouchere: Yes, Sir.—Mr. Speaker: That cannot be moved with the Speaker in the Chair. It can only be moved with the Speaker out of the Chair. It has reference to the Returning Officer's expenses, [306] 1461

Amendments in Committee—Parliamentary Elections (Returning Officers) Act (1875) Amendment Bill—Schedule 2—Mr. Speaker: There would be nothing contrary to Order in moving the omission of the Schedule, because another Schedule might be brought up in substitution; or if the Schedule was struck out consequential changes might be made in the portions of the Bill to which the hon. Member called attention, [306] 1670

Amendments on Amendments—Order in which such Amendments should be put, [306] 1454, 1455, 1456

Proceedings in Committees—An hon. Member (Mr. John Wilson, Edinburgh, Central), is not in Order in referring to what has taken place in a Committee until the Committee has reported, [304] 40

Mr. T. M. Healy asked, was the right hon. and learned Member (Sir Henry James) in Order in referring to the proceedings of a Committee which had not yet circulated its Report among Members?—Mr. Plunket said the Report had been circulated. — Mr. Speaker: The Report has been laid on the Table of the House, and therefore I apprehend the right hon. and learned Member would be in Order, [306] 1494

Amendments in Committee—The course for the hon. Member (Mr. M. Healy) to take would be to move to amend the said Amendment, [305] 1259

As amended, considered—New Clause—I would point out to the two hon. Members, that if they do not object to the principle they should allow the clause to be read a second time, and then should move Amendments to it, [303] 1932

New Clause—Parliamentary Elections (Returning Officers) Bill—as amended, considered. Mr. M. Healy: I now beg to move an Amendment I have handed in.—Mr. Speaker: The clause the hon. Member has handed to me is a new clause, and could not be moved without Notice. I could not entertain it now—it cannot be entertained at this stage, [306] 1618, 1619

Instruction on Re-commitment—Parliamentary Elections (Returning Officers) &c. Bill — Re-committed—Instruction to Committee —The proper form is, "that they have power to provide for the payment of the returning officer's expenses out of the rates," [306] 1606

Re-commitment—Moved, That the Bill (Freshwater Fisheries Bill) be re-committed, pro formâ.—Mr. Stuart-Wortley—on the Question of Order.—I suppose the House has not lost its control over the Amendments to this Bill by the proceeding which has just taken place?—Mr. Speaker: The Bill is in precisely the same position as it was when the House first went into Committee upon it, [306] 911

Jurors' Detention Bill—Considered, as amended —Third Reading—Preamble amended, and agreed to. Mr. Lockwood: I do not know whether the House will allow the Bill to be read a third time now.—Mr. Speaker: The third reading cannot be taken now, in consequence of the Amendment which has been introduced, [306] 781

Report—Third Reading—Bill—Trees (Ireland) Bill—Re-comm. in respect of New Clause—Moved to report Progress; after short debate, Motion withdrawn.—Mr. Gilhooly: Following the example of the Lord Advocate, I beg to move the third reading of the Bill. —Mr. Speaker: It must be reported before that step can be taken, [303] 1325

Moved, "That the Order for the second reading of the Compulsory Purchase of Land Compensation Bill be discharged" — Mr. Speaker said, that such a Motion was unusual in the absence of the hon. Member having charge of the Bill, [303] 1771

PUBLIC AND PROVISIONAL ORDER BILLS

In reply to the Question of the hon. Member, I have to say that this is essentially a Public Bill, and therefore it will lapse entirely with the Prorogation. If it had been simply a Provisional Order Bill, it would necessarily partake of the nature of a Public Bill; but, in my judgment, it is something more than a Provisional Order Bill, and the character of its provisions is such that it is essentially a Public Bill, [307] 206

Postponement—Opposed Clauses — The Bill necessarily stood over from Tuesday, because the clause proposed by the hon. Gentleman is opposed, and the Standing Orders require that any matter affecting a Private Bill, of which notice of opposition is given, shall stand over until the next day of the sitting of the House, when a day shall be fixed for considering it, [306] 186; [307] 204

DIVISIONS

If there are no Tellers there can be no Division [307] 205

Members pecuniarily Interested — Mr. Forwood: Considering the nature of the Standing Orders of the House as to the pecuniary interest of Members in questions which may be brought before us, and also the fact that this is a proposal which is to facilitate the construction of a Canal (Manchester Ship Canal) which may affect the financial position of the Companies I have enumerated, and the dividends which the shareholders of these Companies may receive, I wish to ask you if these 15 Members are entitled to vote in the Division? — Mr. Speaker: That is entirely a matter for the consideration of the individual Members concerned, having regard to the directness of their interest, [303] 275

SUPPLY

Committee of Supply and Ways and Means—Standing Order XXI.—Mr. Speaker: I think, under the circumstances, it is not for me to interfere, and say that the Committee of Supply, standing as the first Order of the Day, must be taken, if the House should decide that other Business should be taken first, [302] 912, 918, 919

Supply—Standing Order XXI. Mr. Sexton: May I ask whether the Motion which the hon. Member proposes to make is in Order? You have already left the Chair on the Civil Service Estimates, and I wish to know if it is competent for any hon. Member to make any further Motion?—Mr. Speaker: The Standing Order to which the hon. Gentleman refers (Standing Order XXI.) applies when the Estimates are taken on Monday or Thursday, and only on those days, [303] 97

Supply—Navy Estimates — Standing Order XXI. Mr. A. O'Connor, having read the Standing Order, said: Sir, the question I wish to ask you is this, Whether, this evening, if the debate arising on the first Notice of Amendment should not be completed but should be adjourned, this Standing Order will preclude the resumption of the debate on a future day, or whether the debate will be continued on the next day on which the Navy Estimates are set down?—Mr. Speaker: The debate would be continued on the next day for which Supply is set down, [303] 826
Setting-up Supply—Mr. Speaker: The Order for Supply has already been passed over. The Order itself was defeated; and the Amendment of the hon. Member for Merthyr Tydvil (Mr. Richard) having been negatived, unless the Government chose to set up Supply again there is no power on the part of the House to revive it. The question that has arisen now has reference to the custom of setting up Supply after an Amendment has been negatived, and the Order of the Day has been suspended by the action of the House, [303] 1426, 1427, 1428

Sunday (Opening of Museums, &c.)
Moved to resolve "That whereas for many years past Parliament has voted, without comment or protest, funds to provide for the Sunday opening of Hampton Court Picture Galleries, Kew Gardens, the Painted Hall of Greenwich Hospital, and the Dublin National Gallery; that whereas a majority of the Trustees of both the British Museum and of the National Gallery have expressed a desire to open those institutions on Sunday afternoons; that whereas for many years museums, libraries, and art galleries have been opened free to the people on Sundays in many large provincial towns, with results of a highly satisfactory character; and further, seeing that no legislative impediment is offered to the Sunday opening of the Zoological Gardens in London to the wealthy classes of society, notwithstanding the much larger proportion of Sunday labour thereby involved as compared with a Government art collection; that, for the above reasons, this House is therefore of opinion that the time has now come when the principle already conceded should, in the interests of religion and education, be extended to the national collections of art and literature in the Metropolis" (The Lord Thurlow) Mar 19, [303] 1326
